Our “Call to Holiness”!

A Program in Response to Our Diocesan Plan’s Invitation To Live Our Call to Holiness

*“To be holy is to live in union with Christ
...and to imitate him in his concern for all.”*

*[Pastoral Letter from Bishop Paul S. Coakley,
Nov. 1, 2010]*

This program will help us explore our Baptismal call to holiness, including God’s desire that we live in wholeness and in love. Sessions, offered by staff members of Manna House of Prayer, will cover the meaning of holiness and the following of Christ through discipleship, prayer, personal integrity, and a practice of compassionate service.

Bring this program to your parish as:

- ◆ A one afternoon program, 2-3 hours,
- ◆ A 3-evening program, one hour per session.
